College of New Rochelle

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y.

The College of New Rochelle is essentially a college for Catholic women and is chartered by the University of the State of New York, empowered to grant degrees in Letters, Science and Music. It maintains no Preparatory School.

Our Preparatory School, formerly known as the Ursuline Seminary, is now located on a beautiful estate, three miles from the College, on the healthful Wykagyl hills, New Rochelle.

Department of Pedagogy

Approved by the Regents of the State of New York, and by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, New York City students taking bachelor degrees and 250 hours of professional training will receive a State Provisional License to teach in the High Schools of New York State.

Department of Secretarial Studies

This department offers a scientific and technical training necessary for teachers of social and commercial subjects in High Schools, as well as trained workers in scientific, literary and professional pursuits.
